1. Purposes of cookies placed on your terminal

Some cookies are essential to the use of the Website and the App: these are technical cookies used by the Website and the App host for the technical management of the network.

Others are used to analyze the frequentation and the use made of the Website and the App, in order :

- to make it evolve in the sense of an improvement of the experience of navigation, in the final objective to propose you a Website and a App always more adapted; to conduct studies ;
- to memorize your browser's display preferences (language used, display parameters, operating system used, etc.) and to adapt the presentation of the Website and the App to the time of your visits, according to the hardware and software of visualization or reading that your terminal equipment includes and which are used for navigation on our Website and App;

- to implement security measure
1. The personal data we process
- Cookies used on our Website and App are third party cookies chosen by NEFTURE in order to achieve certain objectives, listed below :

The placement and use of cookies by these companies is subject to their own terms of use, which you can view on their respective websites.

1. Sharing your terminal use with others

If your terminal is used by several person, and when a single terminal has multiple browsers, we cannot be certain that the services and advertisements directed to your terminal equipment correspond to your own use of that terminal equipment and not to that of another user of that terminal equipment.

Sharing with others the use of your terminal equipment and configuring your browser settings with respect to cookies is your free choice and responsibility.

1. Consent

When you first visit our Website and App, you will be asked to accept, configure or refuse the use of some cookies.

If you do not want cookies to be placed or read on your terminal equipment, a refusal cookie will be placed on your equipment so that NEFTURE can record the information according to which you have refused the use of cookies. If you delete this refusal cookie, it will no longer be possible to identify you as having refused the use of cookies.

Also, when you accept the deposit of cookies, a consent cookie is placed.

Refusal or consent cookies must remain on your terminal equipment. You can change your choices at any time by clicking here.

1. Cookie management

You can manage and modify the use of cookies at any time according to the possibilities listed below :

- directly on our Website and App, in the module provided for this purpose, by clicking here [insert a link to the cookie management module], or
- from your browser, or
- from interprofessional opposition platforms.

Please note: your refusal to place a cookie is based on the deposit of a cookie. Therefore, if you deactivate all cookies on your terminal or if you change your terminal, we will no longer know that you have chosen this option.

5.1 Cookie management module

A module allows you to choose which cookies you wish to accept and which you wish to reject on our Website and App.

At any time, by clicking here [insert a link sending back to the cookie management module] you can access the module and change your preferences.

5.2 Navigation software settings

You can configure your browser so that cookies are stored in your terminal equipment or are rejected, either systematically or according to their sender.

You can also regularly delete cookies from your terminal via your browser.

However, don't forget to configure all the browsers on your various terminals (tablets, smartphones, computers, etc.).

Each browser is configured differently in order to manage cookies and your choices. It is described in the help menu of your browser, which will allow you to know how to modify your choices regarding cookies. For example :

- for Internet Explorer™ :
<http://windows.microsoft.com/fr-FR/windows-vista/Block-or-allow-cookies> ;
- for Safari™ : <https://support.apple.com/fr-fr/guide/safari/sfri11471/mac> ;
- for Chrome™:

5.3 Interprofessional opposition platforms

Several advertising professionals' platforms also offer you the possibility to refuse or accept cookies used by the member companies. These centralized mechanisms do not block the display of advertisements but only prevent from the installation of cookies that allow the adaptation of advertisements to your interests and behavior.

For example, you can connect to the site www.youronlinechoices.com in order to prevent these cookies from being placed on your terminal. This website is proposed by the professionals of digital advertising gathered within the European association EDAA (European Digital Advertising Alliance).

You will be able to find out which companies are registered with this platform and which offer you the possibility of refusing or accepting the cookies they use to adapt, according to the data they collect, the advertisements that may be displayed on your browser :

www.youronlinechoices.com/fr/controler-ses-cookies.

This European platform is shared by hundreds of Internet advertising professionals and constitutes a centralized interface allowing you to express your refusal or acceptance of cookies as specified above.

1. Personal data protection

Within the framework of the use of cookies as described on the present page, the NEFTURE company is likely to process personal data concerning you, such as IP addresses, in its capacity as data controller.

The issuance and use of these cookies by third parties is subject to their own privacy policies.

The data collected is essential to achieve the objectives pursued by each cookie. It is only intended for the authorized departments of the NEFTURE company and/or the company issuing the third-party cookies.

Personal data about you may be transmitted to service providers located in third countries outside the European Union, namely Switzerland (Europe), United States (North America) .

These data transfers are governed by a cross-border flow agreement established in accordance with the contractual clauses issued by the European Commission and currently in force.

Personal data collected via cookies is never kept longer than necessary to achieve the purpose of the cookie and, in any case, not more than 13 months.

For more information, including how to exercise your rights, see our Privacy Policy.
